

Brooke Gilbert Photography Investment (2025-2026)

Family Session Investment

A family session includes all of the special moments that happen when you are together. The photography session will take place in an outdoor setting, using natural light and a relaxed atmosphere. The package includes a photo shoot for up to 6 family members, with an additional cost of $25 per extra family member or pet. Sessions can last up to 45 minutes and include various poses. Family collections start at $325 and may vary based on location, duration and additional people.

Just the Kids Session Investment.

A children's session is a joyful celebration of personality and connection — capturing the laughter, curiosity, and fleeting expressions that define each stage of childhood. These sessions are relaxed, playful, and designed to let your children simply be themselves.

The experience includes up to four children, with an additional fee of $25 per extra child. Sessions typically last up to 30 minutes and include an online gallery of beautifully edited images to cherish for years to come.

Children's collections begin at $250.

Senior Session Investment

A senior session is a celebration of individuality — capturing the confidence, personality, and style that define this unforgettable season of life. Each experience is thoughtfully designed to feel natural, effortless, and empowering, allowing authentic moments to shine through every image.

Sessions take place in beautiful outdoor locations or meaningful settings that reflect who you are. They include a variety of poses, outfit changes, and creative compositions to showcase your true personality.

Senior collections begin at $375.

Headshot Investment

Your headshot is often your introduction to the world — it should convey confidence, professionalism, and authenticity. Each session is crafted with a refined, editorial approach designed to elevate your personal or professional brand.

Sessions take place in natural light environments that create a clean, modern, and timeless aesthetic. You'll receive personalized guidance on posing, expression, and wardrobe to ensure you feel comfortable and camera-ready throughout the experience.

Headshot collections begin at $200.

Corporate Headshot packages are also available and can be tailored to your team's size, location, and branding needs.
